LEGAL PRACTITIONERS REGISTRATION ACT 1986

Received Royal Assent:	11 April 1986
Passed:	15 April 1986
Commenced:	1 January 1987

AN ACT to regulate certain legal practitioners carrying on business in the Island; for the registration of such practitioners; to establish an Advocates Disciplinary Tribunal; to transfer certain functions of the Council of the Isle of Man Law Society to that Tribunal; and for connected purposes.

Registration of legal practitioners

1     Restriction of use of word advocate, etc

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), after the appointed day no person carrying on a business in or from within the Island shall —
  - (a) practise or carry on business under the name, style or title of advocate, solicitor, barrister or attorney; or
  - (b) take or use any name, style, title or description implying, or otherwise pretend, that he is an advocate, solicitor, barrister or attorney; or
  - (c) publicly hold himself out as a legal practitioner of whatever nature or description,unless he is registered in accordance with section 2.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall affect any person who practises or carries on business under the name, style or title of advocate, solicitor and attorney if that person is qualified to act as an advocate in accordance with section 7 of the Advocates Act 1976 (in this Act referred to as “the 1976 Act”).
- (3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.<sup>1</sup>

2 Establishment of register of legal practitioners

- (1) The Registrar General shall establish and maintain a register of legal practitioners (in this Act referred to as “the register”) and shall cause to be registered therein the prescribed particulars of every person entitled to be registered.<sup>2</sup>
- (2) A person shall be entitled to be registered if he satisfies the Registrar General that —
  - (a) he is a fit and proper person to be registered; and
  - (b) he holds a prescribed legal qualification which would enable him to practice law in the country in which he is qualified; and
  - (c) he, or a firm of which he is a member or employee, has a permanent establishment in the Island; and
  - (d) he complies with such further conditions as are prescribed.<sup>3</sup>
- (3) Every application for registration shall be made to the Registrar General in the prescribed form which shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee and such documents and information as may be —
  - (a) prescribed; or
  - (b) required by the Registrar General.<sup>4 5</sup>
- (4) Any person who, for the purpose of obtaining registration, knowingly or recklessly gives any information which is false in a material particular shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.<sup>6</sup>
- (5) This section shall not have effect in relation to a person who is qualified to act as an advocate under the 1976 Act.

3 Duration and renewal of registration

- (1) Registration shall, unless previously revoked, be valid for one year.
- (2) Registration shall be renewable annually, and the provisions of this Act relating to registration shall apply to the renewal of registration.
- (2A) Where an application for renewal of registration is made before that registration expires, the registration shall continue in force until the application is either —
  - (a) determined; or
  - (b) withdrawn.<sup>7</sup>
- (3) If the Registrar General is satisfied that a person who is registered has ceased to be entitled to be registered, he shall revoke such registration after giving such person an opportunity of being heard.<sup>8</sup>

4 Application of section 11 of the *Advocates Act 1976

For the purposes of section 11(1)(a) of the 1976 Act, a person who is registered under this Act shall not be treated as an unqualified person in relation to the drawing or preparation of any instrument of transfer or charge or any other instrument relating to personal estate.

4A Right of review

- (1) A person who has —
  - (a) been refused registration under section 2; or
  - (b) has had his registration revoked under section 3,has a right to have the decision reviewed by the First Deemster.
- (2) An application for a review must —
  - (a) be in writing;
  - (b) give particulars of the decision which the applicant wants to be reviewed;
  - (c) include any material or representations that the applicant wants to be taken into account in the review;
  - (d) give an address to which notices can be sent; and
  - (e) be delivered to the Isle of Man Courts of Justice within 1 month after the applicant is given notice of the original decision.
- (3) The First Deemster may confirm, vary or reverse the decision under review.
- (4) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the First Deemster under subsection (3) may appeal against the decision to the Staff of Government Division in the same manner as in appeals from the Civil Division.<sup>9</sup>
- (5) The Staff of Government Division shall treat an appeal under subsection (4) in all respects as if it were an appeal from the Civil Division and all enactments relating to such appeals shall apply with the necessary modifications.<sup>10 11</sup>

5 Regulations

- (1) The Department for Enterprise may make such regulations as they consider necessary or desirable to carry the provisions of this Act into effect, and, without prejudice to the generality of that power, such regulations —
  - (a) may apply the provisions of Parts II and IV of, section 26 of, and Schedule 1 to, the 1976 Act and any rules or regulations made thereunder, to persons registered under this Act, subject to such modifications, adaptations and exceptions as may be specified;

- (b) may require persons registered under this Act to take out and maintain liability insurance of such type and amount as may be approved by the Registrar General;<sup>12</sup>
  - (c) may (where the circumstances permit) require a person registered under this Act to hold a current practising certificate issued by the responsible professional body in the country in which that person is qualified;
  - (d) may regulate the issue, form and content of advertisements, circulars, letter headings and other documents and in particular —
    - (i) may prohibit the issue of advertisements or circulars of or by persons of, particular descriptions; and
    - (ii) may make provision with respect to matters which must be, as well as to matters which may not be, included in advertisements, circulars, letter headings and other documents;
  - (dd) may exempt such persons or classes of persons as are specified from the operation of this Act;<sup>13</sup>
  - (e) may make such transitional and supplemental provisions as they think fit;<sup>14</sup>
  - (f) may prescribe maximum penalties not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale on summary conviction for the contravention of the regulations.<sup>15 16</sup>
- (2) Regulations made under this section shall not come into operation until they are approved by Tynwald.
